

National Drop Everything and Read Challenge

Join us for Ireland's 3rd National Drop Everything and Read Challenge

12 noon on Friday April 27th 2018

What is Drop Everything and Read (DEAR)?

The entire nation is invited to take time out and to 'Drop Everything and Read' for 20 minutes at 12 noon on Friday April 27th 2018.

The simple but very effective idea is to promote the importance of literacy and reading for pleasure by having as many people as possible read at the same time on the same day.

Work will be put down, computer screens will be turned off, and everyone will be encouraged to pick up a book, magazine, newspaper, e-book, audio book, etc. and to read quietly, or indeed be read to, for 20 minutes.

The main focus of this national DEAR challenge is to draw attention to the importance of reading for pleasure. If reading is to become a lifelong habit then young people must see themselves as participants in a community that views reading as a significant and enjoyable activity.

DEAR Ambassador

We are delighted to, once again, have illustrator, author and Laureate na nÓg P.J. Lynch as our DEAR Ambassador this year. Click here to see a short video clip of P.J. promoting the initiative.

When is DEAR celebrated?

The official time and date for DEAR Ireland 2018 is 12 noon on Friday April 27th.

Can DEAR be celebrated at a different time/date?

Of course. If you cannot participate in DEAR at the official date and time, then please take time to read on a date and time to suit you. DEAR can be celebrated at any time on any day, or better still, every day!

What do I need to do to participate in DEAR?

All those planning to participate in the 2018 National Drop Everything and Read Challenge (individuals, families, schools, organisations, companies, etc.) are asked to register here

Then all you have to do is read!
